

Join us for a public hearing on services for older adults and family caregivers.

Are you an older adult, caregiver of an older adult, or person who's concerned about aging issues? If so, we want to hear from you.

The North Central Texas Area Agency on Aging (NCTAAA) invites members of the public to provide input as it develops a strategic plan for aging services. It will conduct four public hearings, scheduled as “come and go” events.

- Wednesday, July 10, 2019, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Forney Sr. Center, 101 East Main Street, Forney 75126
- Thursday, July 11, 2019, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Sam Johnson Recreation Center for Adults 50+,
401 West 16th Street, Plano 75075
- Friday, July 12, 2019, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Decatur Public Library, 1700 South Highway 51,
Decatur 76234
- Monday, July 15, 2019, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Hood County Senior Center, 501 East Moore Street,
Granbury 76048

No reservations are necessary. For more information about the public hearings, contact Mike Hensley at 817-695-9195 or mhensley@nctcog.org. Those in need of accommodation should contact Hensley at least five business days prior to the public hearing.

If you wish to provide input but can't attend a public hearing, contact Doni Green at 817-695-9193 or dgreen@nctcog.org.

The NCTAAA is funded by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission to provide services to people age 60 and over and their family caregivers who live in Collin, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Hood, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rockwall, and Somervell counties. These services include home-delivered meals, transportation, information and referral, caregiver support, benefits counseling, and advocacy for nursing home residents.
