Children's Events

Little Learners Storytime:

Wednesdays and Thursdays at 10:15 a.m.

A great educational program where children, ages 3-5, can enjoy songs, rhymes, movement, and short stories. Parents and caregivers are encouraged to participate and enjoy also!

Sensory Storytime:

Wednesdays and Thursdays at 11:30 a.m.

This early literacy class combines a short structured storytime with interactive play, music, and movement. For children of all ages and abilities.

D.A.S.H. (Decatur After School Hangout)

Monday – Thursday, 3:45 to 4:15

Children and teens 18 and under can join us after school for the Decatur After School Hangout (DASH). A balanced meal will be served. Children and teens can participate in different activities at the library. Food will not be served when the library is closed or when school is out.

Family Events

Gaming in the Library:

Second Saturday of each month at 10 a.m. for all ages

Join us for role playing games in the library. There will be tables set up for different games, including Savage Worlds, Pathfinder, Dungeons and Dragons, Magic: The Gathering, and Pokemon, the trading card game.

Fourth Saturday of the month at 10 a.m.

This event is dedicated to role playing games for teens and adults only.

Long Overdue Podcast

New episodes every Friday

The Long Overdue Podcast is a production of the Decatur Public Library and features staff members discussing various library-related topics.

Dewey Like Murder? is a segment of the Long Overdue Podcast that airs on the 2nd Friday of the month. On this segment we discuss true crime books that are available in the library.

Adult and Teen Events

The Book Experience Book Club:

Tuesday, January 7th at 11:00 a.m.

We're kicking off the year with Educated by Tara Westover. If you liked The Glass Castle, this book is right up your alley!

Teen Time with AgriLife: Cooking

Friday, January 17th at 3:45 pm

Teens in grades 5-12 can join us and AgriLife for a fun afternoon of learning how to cook!

Writers Group:

First & third Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m.

This group meets to discuss and critique original works, and is intended for adults, anyone 18 years old and over.

Trivia at Trinity: 1970s

Thursday, Jan. 16th at 7:00 p.m.

We're traveling back in time for trivia night in honor of our 50th anniversary! Join us at Trinity Street Coffee Bar and see how well you remember the 70s!

Teen Writers Group:

Monday, Jan. 27th, at 5:30 p.m.

This group meets to discuss and critique original works, and is intended for teens, anyone between 13 and 17 years old.

"Saving for Retirement" Financial Class
